Building Inspection Staff Receives State Recognition

Awarded the David E. Smith, Jr. Award of Building Department Excellence by the Ohio Board of Building Standards

Did you get your permit?

Protect yourself and your family! Permits are required for any new construction, addition, alternations, repairs, installation of equipment and replacement of any electrical, plumbing, gas, or mechanical system. This includes hot water heaters, furnances, central air conditioning units, gas fireplaces, etc.

Only a few communities within the County have not adopted the Residential Code of Ohio: Bloomdale, Fostoria, Jerry City, Portage, Wayne and West Millgrove. Outside of these areas, residents must comply with the applicable building codes and apply for any necessary permits.

Contact Building Inspection for more information.
